Letter From the Editors

Over the past two years, we have had the pleasure of working together on the yearbook staff and this year we had the honor of being the yearbook editors. Throughout Casey's four years she has worked with three different editors whose guidance and advice gave her the knowledge needed to successfully run the yearbook. Although Lauren has only been part of the staff for two years, her dedication and diligence has helped the yearbook continue to be a thriving club at Case.

To the yearbook staff, we thought working with an almost 100% new staff would be a nightmare and in reality, we were right. Just kidding! Your hard work and dedication for the yearbook as well as sacrificing your summer made it possible to reach deadlines, have a flawless picture day and most importantly, coordinate Spirit Week. Samantha, Alyson, Ashley, Shelby, Melissa, and Brooke made a wonderful edition to the staff because their differently creative personalities added little things to every page of the yearbook. Matt and Craig gave the yearbook a male representation that hasn't been seen in four years. Finally, we would like to mention Sonia who was brave enough to return to the yearbook staff even though she knew that we would be the editors this year. With her help and patience, the new staff members were able to have an easy transition.

Being a part of the yearbook staff made our senior year even more enjoyable. We will always remember jamming out to 90's pop music in the computer lab after school, even though some people would have rather listened to Christmas music... We want to wish the staff good luck next year. Enjoy your time in this club, as you will cherish these memories forever.

Letters From the Administration

I want to express to all of the 2013 Case graduates my most sincere congratulations for your graduation and a most earnest commendation for an educational job well done. This graduating class of 2013 has given real worth and dignity to the Joseph Case High School diploma by taking the individual responsibility of earning it.

As this special educational journey has come to an end, another life journey for you has begun. The entire Swansea Public Schools staff has worked diligently to prepare each of you for your chosen future. You all have the ability to meet the challenges of your next journey. Go forward with commitment and resolve, continue to make the end as exciting as the beginning. Our society needs your youth, creativity, dedication and productivity. Challenge yourself; don't settle for less. Look at these next endeavors as short-term opportunities that will lead you to the successful pursuit of your lifetime goals. They all lead to experiences and strengthen you as a person. Continue to grow and do not be afraid to take a risk. I have the greatest confidence that you will face your next journey with the skills, knowledge and determination necessary to each your goals.

As you leave Joseph Case High School go out and "make a difference", but never forget those who have directly supported and believed in you.

Christine M. Stanton

Superintendent of Swansea Public Schools

I congratulate each and every one of you on your graduation from Joseph Case High School. It is exciting and rewarding to watch you walk across the stage to receive your diploma and bring closure to such an important and enjoyable chapter in your lives. The next chapter will be equally as challenging and hopefully as enjoyable as your twelve years in the Swansea Public Schools.

You should be proud of what you have accomplished and excited to pursue the challenges that lie ahead. I urge you to move forward in pursuit of your goals and dreams with the confidence that the knowledge, experience and character that you have gained at Joseph Case High School will allow you to be successful in the next chapter of your life and beyond.

I ask that you make the difficult choices in your life that will continue to make your parents, your community and yourself proud. Congratulations on this outstanding achievement. I wish you the best of luck in the pursuit of your future endeavors.

Robert G. Monteiro

Assistant Superintendent of Swansea Public Schools

To the Class of 2013:

Congratulations on all of the successes that your class has had with its individual students as well as collectively as a community at Joseph Case High School. In looking for inspiration to leave your class, I actually found it in trying to fulfill something on my own bucket list.

This last fall I made the choice to finish two English novels that I did not finish in college. At the age of 50, I enjoyed Thomas Hardy's Tess of the D'Urbervilles so much (much more than when I was 18!) that I decided to tackle another book I started in the early 1980s: George Eliot's Middlemarch. It has been a slow, tough read, but I'm slowly chipping away at this novel written in 1871. Last night, I came across a passage that resonated with me in regards to your class:

It is an uneasy lot at best, to be what we call highly taught and yet not to enjoy: to be present at this great spectacle of life and never to be liberated from a small hungry shivering self -- never to be fully possessed by the glory we behold...

High school is the beginning of the rest of your life. I hope that you embrace all of your Joseph Case experiences for what they are intended to be: a springboard for your success as an adult. Discern what you liked most of all during your high school years and find some way to manifest this discovery into a joy that is full of pride and combined with the ability to maintain the lifestyle that you are accustomed to in your time following high school.

Most of all, keep the doors of your life open to new possibilities everyday and enjoy every opportunity and challenge presented to you. May you evolve in ways you never knew that you could. And I hope you get to make and complete a bucket list as well!

Cheers!

Brian McCann

Principal of Joseph Case High School

To the Class of 2013,

Congratulations on this important milestone in your life. Graduating high school is something you will never forget and I hope you take the time to reflect on all of your accomplishments during your time at Joseph Case High School. Although the members of the Class of 2013 will begin to part ways as you begin a new chapter in your lives, please remember that you will always have a common bond as graduates of Joseph Case High School. This is something to take great pride in.

Many opportunities and challenges will be presented to you in the coming years and the foundation you have received from your education in Swansea has prepared you to be successful in achieving your goals. I know you will go on to make our community proud.

I wish you the best of luck in all your future endeavors,

Sean Scanlon

Assistant Principal of Joseph Case High School

Dedication

The class of 2013 would like to dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Bob Mitchell. As a faculty member here at Joseph Case High School for 6 years, Mr. Mitchell has worked with many students through the ACE program and has influenced countless lives.

Mr. Mitchell is actively involved in all aspects of the Case High community, whether it be going to sports games, band competitions or participating in fundraisers (some of which are of no use to him). His willingness to support all members of the high school, even if he does not personally know them, shows the depth of his character. Another sign of Mr. Mitchell's character is the fact that he spends his free time coaching the girls soccer team, which with his help, had a very successful season.

We would like to thank Mr. Mitchell for all his hard work and dedication. Any student can attest to the fact that it never goes unappreciated. Case would not be the same without Mr. Mitchell and his charismatic smile throughout the hallways. He has so much love for every student in this school and everything he does clearly shows that.

In Appreciation

One of the most appreciated staff members at Joseph Case High School is Mr. Adam Palmisciano. As a faculty member in the history department for 9 years, Mr. Palmisciano has taught hundreds of students in United States History, World History, and Economics courses. Anyone who has had the privilege of being taught by Mr. Palmisciano understands the impact he has on students, as he is willing to do everything for them, including spending his own personal time after school helping them.

Although he has been a staple in the History and Social Studies department, that is only the beginning of Mr. Palmisciano's footprint at Case. A four year leader of the Mock Trial team, Mr. Palmisciano has helped inspire kids to pursue careers in law. Also the advisor of the Student Council, Mr. Palmisciano has helped the community by running blood drives, breast cancer fundraisers, and the annual Giving Tree.

In November of 2012, Mr. Palmisciano, was offered the position of Vice Principle at Joseph Case Junior High, uprooting him from the high school mid year on short notice. The departure of Mr. Palmisciano this year greatly affected the student body, as well as the faculty. Mr. Palmisciano will be missed greatly, but we would like to wish him the best of luck with his new position. We hope that his future endeavors (whether they be at the junior high or the high school) bring him joy and we know that he'll be phenomenal at whichever he chooses.
